GULF SOUTH CONFERENCE PLAY BEGINS WITH IMPORTANT DII MATCHUP

With two weeks to prepare, the Valdosta State Blazers are geared up to begin Gulf South Conference play with a bang against the long-time rival Lions of North Alabama. The contest extends well beyond conference implications, as both teams currently hold a ranking among the top 25 teams in the country according to the most recent American Football Coaches' Association poll.

Both the Blazers (1-0) at No. 22 and the Lions (0-1) at No. 20 will enter Saturday's game with something to prove. The Lions are looking to rebound from an season-opening 31-12 loss, albeit to FCS No. 2 ranked Jacksonville State. In the contest, the Lions were held to 222 total yards while the Gamecocks racked up 502 total yards. Despite falling behind 21-0 early, however, UNA did manage to outscore JSU by a score of 12-10 in the second half. Quarterback Jacob Tucker completed 14-of-24 passes in the game for 170 yards, and Julius Jones accounted for 76 receiving yards with four receptions on the day. Jacob Tucker represented the leading rusher in the game after netting 48 yards on the ground.

The Blazers came away with a win in their opening matchup against the Albany State Golden Rams, but Head Coach Kerwin Bell hasn't been shy over the course of the last two weeks about his expectations for improvement heading into VSU's second game of the season.

Valdosta State's offense put up 16 points in the third quarter, which proved to be just enough for a victory, thanks to the impressive performance of the Blazers' defense. The only points allowed by the "Black Swarm" came on a single touchdown in the second quarter, and a host of forced turnovers helped VSU overcome an offensive effort that tallied just 204 total yards.

Saturday's contest pits the new against the old, as VSU's all-new head coach Kerwin Bell squares off against long-time UNA head coach Bobby Wallace. Wallace, now in his 28th collegiate season and 15th season at North Alabama, became UNA's all-time winningest coach last season with 115 wins against just 50 losses and one tie at UNA.

QUICK NOTES

- Valdosta State is now in its 35th year of intercollegiate football and owns an overall record of 268 wins, 119 losses and four ties.
- The Blazers' new mantra this year is "New era. Same tradition." With the exception of Jeremy Darveau, the Blazer coaching staff features an entirely new lineup, consisting of four new assistant coaches. The group is led by Kerwin Bell, who was named the program's new head coach in January, and will serve as the eighth head coach in a line of Valdosta State Football head coaches.
- The Blazers have scored points in 295 straight games, which represents a Division II Football record. The last time the Blazers were shutout was in the 1991 season opener against Central Florida.
- With 4,115 total career rushing yards, Cedric O'Neal now holds the school record for most career rushing yards and most career touchdowns (49). His rushing touchdown total of 17 last season placed him at the top of the Gulf South Conference.
- Valdosta State football's winning percentage of .685 places them second all-time at the Division II level. The only program with a higher winning percentage is Grand Valley State. The Lakers have a record of 371-137-3, which tops Division II with a .729 winning percentage.
- Roland Rivers made his first career start two weeks ago vs. Albany State. He completed 13-of-32 for an 104.23 pass efficiency and a 40.63 percentage. He tallied 203 passing yards and rushed for 44 yards. Rivers had a direct hand in both VSU touchdowns in the game, throwing to Dallas Baldner for one before rushing into the endzone for the second.

SERIES HISTORY AGAINST NORTH ALABAMA

The rivalry between the Blazers and the Lions is arguably the most storied in Valdosta State history. The two programs have squared off in each of the 34 years of VSU football history, and have faced each other six times in postseason play. Today's contest marks the 41st contest in Blazer football history, with the Lions holding a 23-16-1 advantage. Oddly enough, the visiting team has won eight of the last nine games between the Lions and the Blazers... Saturday's contest marks the first ever Gulf South Conference matchup for Coach Kerwin Bell...

BLAZERS MAKE THE POINT

Known for its offense, Valdosta State is the current NCAA Division II leader in games without being shutout as the Blazers have scored in each of their last 295 games. The last time VSU was shutout was on September 14, 1991 when UCF defeated the Blazers 12-0 in Orlando, Fla.

Below is a closer look at the current Division II leaders in consecutive games without being shutout:

Rank	School	Games
1.	Valdosta State	295
2.	Grand Valley State	277
3.	Carson-Newman	260

BLAZERS AMONG THE NATIONS BEST

Now in its 35th year of football, Valdosta State ranks among the top schools in the nation in terms of all-time winning percentage. In fact, only one school - Grand Valley State - has a better all-time winning percentage than the Blazers, whose 258-115-3 all-time record accounts for a .685 winning percentage. Below is a look at the top five teams by winning percentage all-time on the NCAA Division II level:

No.	Team	Yrs	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	Grand Valley State	45	356	131	3	.730
3.	Valdosta State	34	259	115	3	.685

5.	Texas A&M-Kingsville	86	591	291	16	.667

ONE OF THE BEST SINCE 2000

Much of the Blazers' all-time winning percentage ranking can be attributed to Valdosta State's play since the beginning of the 2000 season, as only two Division II teams have won more games during that period. The Blazers have tallied 156 wins over the course of the last 15 seasons, behind only Grand Valley State's 181 and Northwest Missouri State's 178. GVSU (.848), NMSU (.850) and Tuskegee (.805) are the only teams with a better winning percentage than Valdosta State's .799. Below is a look at the top five in the nation in each category since the beginning of 2000:

By Total Wins

No.	Team	W	L	Pct.
1.	Grand Valley State	181	32	.850
2.	Northwest Missouri State	178	31	.851

BLAZERS PICKED TO FINISH FIFTH IN GSC

Preseason All-Gulf South Conference pick Kenny Moore and the Valdosta State football team will enter the 2016 campaign with something to prove, according to a poll taken of the Gulf South Conference coaches, as the Blazers were picked to finish fifth in the league in a release by the GSC on Wednesday.

Despite a preseason national ranking at No. 13 in the 2016 Lindy's Sports Magazine Preseason Division II poll, the Blazers picked up two third place votes, four fourth place votes and two fifth place votes for 40 total points. As a result, VSU trailed Delta State, who fell into fourth place with 46 points (one second place vote, five third place votes, one fourth place vote, one fifth place vote). Florida Tech edged out DSU by a narrow margin in third place with 48 points (two first place votes, one second place vote, one third place vote, three fourth place votes, one fifth place vote), while North Alabama came in second with 53 points (six second place votes, one third place vote, one fourth place vote). West Georgia topped the preseason list for the second straight season with 63 points (seven first place votes, one second place vote).

Rounding out the poll in the bottom four positions were West Alabama in sixth place with 26 points, followed by Mississippi College, West Florida, and Shorter in the bottom three with 21, 16, and 11 points, respectively.

ONE BLAZER NAMED PRESEASON ALL-GSC

As for individual honors, the Blazers were represented by Moore, a local product out of Lowndes High School who is preparing for his senior season. Moore established himself as one of the top defensive backs in the GSC after a stellar 2015 season, in which the Tiletown native snatched three interceptions and returned two for touchdowns. Additionally, Moore recorded a career high 51 tackles last season to extend his career total beyond the century mark at 106, and earned All-GSC and All-Super Region II honors as a result. Moore was one of just five defensive players to be chosen as a unanimous pick in the poll, voted on each preseason by coaches throughout the GSC.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Overall, VSU has tallied an 94-34-1 record all-time in non-conference games, a winning percentage of .734 in non-GSC games.

Under former head coach David Dean, VSU compiled a 37-7 record and an .860 winning percentage during his nine year stint. Of the six losses under Dean, three came against GSC foes during the NCAA playoffs, which rendered the contest a non-conference matchup.

THE KERWIN BELL SHOW - ONLINE AND RADIO

Hosted by Dick Rockey, The Kerwin Bell Show will be available to watch on demand each week at www.vsublazerfootball.com. The show will be filmed on location following each contest, and will be posted no later than the following Monday each week. The show includes feature packages on various Blazer Athletics events, while also giving an in-depth look at the VSU game from the previous week.

The Kerwin Bell Radio Show will air each Monday night at 7:00 p.m. and is hosted by Marty McGhin. The show airs live on 105.9 FM in Valdosta and will broadcast live from the Coyocan Restaurant in Valdosta. The hour-long program features analysis from Bell as well as a question and answer time at the end of the program.

THE BLAZERS AT HOME

Valdosta State has won 145 of 192 games, with 44 losses and one tie (.754), on its home field since beginning football in 1982. The Blazers are an impressive 135-44-1 (.749) at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium and have a 9-4 (.692) at Martin Stadium.

VSU has gone undefeated at home seven times (5-0 in 2006, 6-0 in 2004, 9-0 in 2002, 5-0 in 1995, 8-0 in 1994, 3-0-1 in 1992 and 5-0 in 1986) in its 29-year history. The Blazers have been particularly successful at home since the beginning of the 2000 season as they have tallied a 76-19 record (.800) during that span.

THE GSC IN THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Only three teams in the Gulf South Conference have made appearances in the Division II National Championship. Delta State appeared in both the 2000 and 2010 title games, while North Alabama (1985, '93, '94, '95) and Valdosta State (2002, '04, '07, '12) have each appeared four times. The Blazers and the Lions have each won three titles, and DSU has won once.

KENNY MOORE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-GSC

Preseason All-Gulf South Conference pick Kenny Moore and the Valdosta State football team will enter the 2016 campaign with something to prove, according to a poll taken of the Gulf South Conference coaches, as the Blazers were picked to finish fifth in the league in a release by the GSC on Wednesday.

Despite a preseason national ranking at No. 13 in the 2016 Lindy's Sports Magazine Preseason Division II poll, the Blazers picked up two third place votes, four fourth place votes and two fifth place votes for 40 total points. As a result, VSU trailed Delta State, who fell into fourth place with 46 points (one second place vote, five third place votes, one fourth place vote, one fifth place vote). Florida Tech edged out DSU by a narrow margin in third place with 48 points (two first place votes, one second place vote, one third place vote, three fourth place votes, one fifth place vote), while North Alabama came in second with 53 points (six second place votes, one third place vote, one fourth place vote). West Georgia topped the preseason list for the second straight season with 63 points (seven first place votes, one second place vote).

Rounding out the poll in the bottom four positions were West Alabama in sixth place with 26 points, followed by Mississippi College, West Florida, and Shorter in the bottom three with 21, 16, and 11 points, respectively.

As for individual honors, the Blazers were represented by Moore, a local product out of Lowndes High School who is preparing for his senior season. Moore established himself as one of the top defensive backs in the GSC after a stellar 2015 season, in which the Tipton native snatched three interceptions and returned two for touchdowns. Additionally, Moore recorded a career high 51 tackles last season to extend his career total beyond the century mark at 106, and earned All-GSC and All-Super Region II honors as a result. Moore was one of just five defensive players to be chosen as a unanimous pick in the poll, voted on each preseason by coaches throughout the GSC.

"I just want to honor God and my family for pushing me to standards that I would not have reached on my own," said Moore on Wednesday after learning of the honor. "I didn't do any of this on my own, and I give all the credit back to the people who made me who I am along the way. As a team, we to come together and motivate one another in order to be successful."

VALDOSTA STATE 16, ALBANY STATE 7

ALBANY, Ga. – The Valdosta State defense came up with a surplus of big plays to hold Albany State at bay, and Cedric O’Neal put up a gutsy effort late in the contest to help lead the Blazers to a 21-13 win over the Golden Rams in Saturday’s season opener in Albany, Ga.

The Blazers scored within the first five minutes of the contest after three completions from senior transfer EJ Hilliard, who finished his first game with 20 completions and 206 passing yards in 36 attempts. The series of completions took the Blazers inside the 10 yard line to set up O’Neal for a nine yard touchdown carry to cap off VSU’s first drive of the season.

Austin Scott added to the Blazers’ rushing attack in the first quarter with 40 yards on the ground, and while VSU was turned away repeatedly throughout the majority of the first half, the Black Swarm defense retained a lead for the red and black.

Albany State threatened one last time with less than three minutes to go, but Egim Etta-Tawo notched one of his two sacks on the night to force a third and long for the Golden Rams, from which they were unable to recover.

A new era of Blazer football began in 2016 with Kerwin Bell at the helm, as Bell was announced as Valdosta State's next head football coach by Valdosta State Athletic Director Herb Reinhard in January.

Bell, a Mayo, Fla. native and graduate of Lafayette County High School, joins the program with extensive coaching experience after having coached at Jacksonville University for nine years, while leading the NCAA Football Championship Series program to a 66-35 record during his time there. Under his direction, the Dolphins won two Pioneer Football League championships, set a PFL record with 16 consecutive wins, and led the team to the best record in school history during the Dolphins' 10-1 run in 2010.

His responsibilities at JU included roles as the team's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, which produced a high-powered offense that led to big numbers in each of his nine seasons. During the aforementioned 2010 PFL championship season, Jacksonville led the nation in total offense with an average of 486 yards per game and also in scoring with an average of 42.2 points per game.

Bell's coaching experience dates back to 1990, when he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach under Steve Spurrier at the University of Florida, where he also played from 1983-87 while earning a Psychology degree and serving as the team's quarterback. In his four years as a Gator, Bell constructed a career that consisted of an SEC Freshman of the Year honor in 1984 after leading the Gators to a 9-1-1 record. He accumulated 7,586 career passing yards and 56 touchdowns in his time at Florida, which ultimately landed him in the UF Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

After completing a professional playing career in the 1990's that included time in the National Football League, the Canadian Football League, and the World League of American Football, Bell returned to a coaching career as an offensive coordinator for the Toronto Argonauts, where he served for two seasons before coaching at Trinity Catholic High School in Ocala, Fla. until his time began at JU, where he posted 9-2 records in both 2014 and 2015.

"I am very pleased and excited to have Kerwin join Valdosta State University and our Blazer football program," stated Reinhard. "He has enjoyed success as a head coach and he has considerable ties in Georgia and Florida. His teams are exciting to watch, and I am confident that he will build on our wonderful foundation of football success."

NEW ERA. SAME TRADITION.

JAKE GRANDE
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
FIRST SEASON AT VALDOSTA STATE
SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI (2002)

Jake Grande was added to the Valdosta State football coaching staff in the summer of 2016, prior to the start of the 2016 season.

Grande is expected to serve as both a special teams and wide receivers coach, the latter of which will be an important role under Coach Bell, who has stated his intentions of offering up a high powered air attack.

"I am a very energetic and positive coach on the field," stated Grande. "I hope that my excitement in coaching will get my players excited when they attack the field. I'm hoping that the energy these receivers bring will help them stretch the field and open it up for Kerwin Bell's passing attack so we can have a great year at the receiver position."

There's no denying that a transition will be in place for Grande, who has spent a majority of his career as a defensive coach. Grande is no stranger to Coach Bell's approach on offense, however, after having worked with the head coach since 2011 at Jacksonville University.

During his stint at JU, Grande started with a bang as the defensive backs coach and led his secondary to a No. 12 pass defense ranking among all NCAA Division I FCS (Football Championship Subdivision) programs. By 2015, the Dolphins had progressed to a No. 1 ranking in the FCS in interceptions, and Grande helped lift the team to No. 4 ranking in pass defense efficiency and a No. 6 overall ranking in scoring defense in 2014.

Grande also served as an assistant to the Jacksonville Sharks Arena Football League team during his same years at Jacksonville University, and preceded his time with those two programs as an assistant coach with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton of Arena Football League fame, where he helped guide the Pioneers to a No. 1 ranking in scoring defense, turnover margin, and fumble recoveries in just his second year with the organization.

In addition to responsibilities as an instructor to the Blazer receiving corps during the upcoming season, Grande will also contribute as a special teams coach. His experience as a player at Wilkes University, where he served as a team captain and achieved All Conference recognition as both a cornerback and a return specialist, will no doubt help in his efforts.

JUSTIN HINDS
DEFENSIVE LINE
ROWAN UNIVERSITY (2008)

Justin Hinds joined the Valdosta State coaching staff as the defensive line coach prior to the 2016 season.

Hinds brings two years of coaching experience from Division I's Southeastern Conference after having spent the 2014 season working under Coach David Turner at Mississippi State as a graduate assistant before a transitioning to another graduate assistant position at Florida for the 2015 season, where he worked under Chris Rumph and Geoff Collins to help lead the Gators to an SEC East title.

"Obviously this is a great opportunity at a great place with great tradition," said Hinds on Friday afternoon. "Just in my short time being here and getting a feel for the area, it's apparent that people really love football around here. This is an opportunity to coach some elite football players around a great fanbase, and I'm ready to be a part of something special that Coach Bell is building here at Valdosta State."

During his time in the SEC, Hinds had the opportunity to coach multiple NFL Draft picks, including John Bullard (2nd round to Chicago Bears) at Florida, along with Preston Smith (2nd round to Washington Redskins) and Chris Jones (2nd round to Kansas City Chiefs) at Mississippi State. Alex McCalister (5th round to Philadelphia Eagles) also benefitted from Hinds' tutelage while at Florida, and Hinds' recruiting efforts also helped the Gators acquire five-star defensive line recruit CeCe Jefferson, who went on to become an All-American during his freshman season in 2015 under the leadership of Hinds and the defensive line coaching staff at UF.

Prior to his hire at Mississippi State in 2014, Hinds worked as the Defensive Line Coach at Wagner College in Staten Island, New York, where he implemented defensive schemes and assisted the team's defensive coordinator with weekly game plans. His efforts helped lead the program to an NEC Championship in 2012, which represented the second of three seasons for Hinds with the team. Other experience includes defensive line coaching positions at Woodbridge and Plainfield in New Jersey, along with a position as the assistant defensive line coach at Rowan University, where he began his coaching career in Glassboro, New Jersey.

JAMES ROWE
DEFENSIVE BACKS
SOUTH FLORIDA (2008)

James Rowe was named the defensive coordinator of the Valdosta State football program on April 18, prior to the start of the 2016 season.

Rowe, a 2009 graduate of the University of South Florida and three-year letterman for the Bulls' baseball team, has since established himself as a talented coach at the collegiate level, with a wealth of experience obtained in a relatively short period of time.

"I'm very excited about having Coach Rowe join us as a defensive coordinator," said Head Coach Kerwin Bell. "I had an opportunity to work with him at Jacksonville University, and I think he is a young superstar in this profession."

Rowe's time as a graduate assistant cornerbacks coach under Bell at JU began in 2012 and carried on throughout the 2013 season. His accomplishments in that role led to a promotion into an assistant coaching role for the wide receiver position in March of 2013, and he continued up the chain in 2014, with yet another promotion into the role of the team's defensive coordinator.

Following his time at Jacksonville University, Rowe was picked up as an addition to the secondary coaching unit at the University of Florida, where he served time as a graduate assistant coach alongside Geoff Collins and Kirk Callahan. Under his tutelage, the Florida defense ranked No. 8 in scoring defense, No. 6 in total defense, and No. 11 in pass defense. Rowe also assisted in the development of some of the top defenders at the Division I level, including Thorpe Finalist and All-American Vernon Hargreaves, All-American safety Marcus Maye, and All-American defensive back Jalen Tabor.

Before joining Coach Bell's staff at Jacksonville University, Rowe began his collegiate coaching career, where he served as a graduate assistant coach for the Bethel University defensive staff in McKenzie, Tenn. during the 2011 season. The Wildcats finished that year ranked No. 14 in the nation, and BU finished the season as the West Division Mid-South Champions.

"[Rowe] is a great communicator," added Bell. "That's probably his number one strength, is his ability to communicate with these young men. I also think he is a very cerebral guy that makes a lot of great adjustments during game situations, and I think he is going to be a great asset for our program as we move forward."

DANNY VERPAELE
LINEBACKERS
MONTANA (2008)

Danny Verpaele officially joined the Valdosta State coaching staff as a linebackers coach on April 18, prior to the start of the 2016 season.

Verpaele came to Valdosta State after two seasons as an assistant coach at Army West Point.

During his tenure at the United States Military Academy in West Point, N.Y., he acquired a significant amount of recruiting experience, particularly in the southeast, with time spent in Texas, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi.

“Coach Verpaele is a guy who is going to complement Coach [James] Rowe very well,” said Head Coach Kerwin Bell. “He is a very knowledgeable guy, but he also brings a lot of juice, or energy, as we say, to our practices and our games.”

Verpaele spent time as a member of Coach Bell’s staff at Jacksonville University prior to his position at Army, working under Coach Bell as an assistant defensive coach with a primary focus on defensive backs. In 2012, his work at JU produced a defensive unit that ranked No. 1 in pass defense and total defense in the Pioneer Football League.

Success at JU led to a graduate assistant coaching position at Mississippi State in 2013, where Verpaele worked at the linebackers position and helped lead the Bulldogs to a No. 18 national ranking on defense. In addition, he helped guide sophomore Bernardrick McKinney to All-American honors and he helped develop New England Patriot free agent Deontae Skinner.

Prior to Jacksonville University, Verpaele kicked off his coaching career at Virginia Military Institute as an assistant coach in 2009, and he posted a three-year letterman career as a strong safety at the University of South Florida from 2004-08.

“[Verpaele] is a guy who brings great energy, who gets after it, and who gets his players to play at a very high level,” added Bell. “He’s a great addition to our staff and is going to bring a lot to the table.”
