QUICK NOTES:

- Coach Mike Helfer's squad has been an offensive juggernaut thus far in their 2017-18 campaign. The Blazers are averaging 95.6 points per game. The average has Valdosta State ranked fourth in the country on the NCAA Division II scoring leaderboard, and the Blazers are averaging over 10 points more per game than the GSC's second best scoring team (West Alabama, 84.3 ppg)
- Junior transfer Winston Morgan has been incredible from beyond the arc this season. The guard has connected on 45 of 90 attempts and currently ranks 10th in the nation with a 50.0 percent shooting effort from behind the arc. Furthermore, Morgan ranks among the NCAA's top 20 in three point field goals made per game (10th, 3.46 percent) and total field goals made (16th, 45).
- Junior guard Beau Justice earned his second career Gulf South Conference Player of the Week honor on Thursday, following a 29-point performance in Tuesday's overtime road win over Lee. Only three players in the Gulf South Conference rank higher than Justice and his average of 19.6 points per game. A key factor in Justice's offensive production is his efficiency at the free throw line. He has missed just six of the 71 free throws he has taken this season, and his 91.5 percentage at the stripe places him among the top 20 free throw shooters in the country at the division II level. work in the classroom.

13TH SEASON
CAPITAL, 1989

Entering his 13th year with Valdosta State, Mike Helfer has established himself as one of the top coaches in the nation. After all, in his first 12 years, he has compiled a 201-119 record, including winning seasons in nine of his 11 years, and repeatedly established his program as one of the most exciting teams in the Gulf South Conference, South Region, and nationwide.

The Blazers returned to form in 2015-16 with a 17-11 overall record and a 13-9 conference record. The season included a slew of near-misses, as VSU took teams into overtime seven times and fell in five of those hard-fought contests. Valdosta State's run last season led to a return to the Gulf South Conference Tournament, marking Helfer's 10th appearance in the playoffs as a head coach at VSU.

Helfer's plan for the Valdosta State program nearly reached its pinnacle in 2009-10 as his team advanced further than any squad in school history. En route to advancing to the national quarterfinals, Helfer directed his team to a school record 28 victories, against just five defeats, and claimed a share of the program's second straight Gulf South Conference East Division title. The Blazers reached as high as No. 2 in the national polls during the year, the highest VSU has ever been ranked nationally, and twice defeated the No. 1 team in the nation, the first incident coming in an 81-75 victory over Augusta State during the regular season and the second occurring when Valdosta State defeated Arkansas Tech 72-60 in the semifinals of the NCAA South Region Tournament. The 28 victories on the year marked the second-highest win total in a single season for Helfer in his 13-year coaching career.

Personal honors were handed out to various Blazers at the conclusion of the season, led by Tyrone Curnell who was named the Gulf South Conference and South Region Player of the Year while earning All-America honors for the second straight season. Helfer shared the GSC East Division Coach of the Year honors, earning the award for the second straight year. Ricardo Lewis was also honored by the Gulf South Conference as he joined Curnell on the first team All-Conference squad.

The single season wins record was not the only Blazer school record to fall during the season as Valdosta State also established a new school mark for points in a season, finishing the year with 2,666 to surpass the old mark of 2,591 set during the 1967 season. The aggressive Blazers also established a new school mark of free throw attempts in a season, tallying 812 attempts on the year, while Curnell set the individual record in both free throws made and free throw attempts, connecting on 156-of-226 attempts on the season to best both old school marks by two. Valdosta State fell just one win shy of tying the school record for consecutive victories in a season as it went 15 games, a stretch that lasted from December 15 until February 18, without losing a contest.

The success of the 2009-10 season was not an overnight occurrence as Helfer spent four years prior to that year establishing the Blazers as one of the top school in the NCAA Division II ranks. His first four years with Valdosta State saw his teams play in a pair of NCAA South Region Tournaments while the Blazers won the Gulf South Conference East Division title in 2008-09, just the third time in school history that the Blazers finished first in the league's division.

Helfer's ability to teach the game of basketball was never more evident than the 2008-09 season, when in addition to the GSC East Division title and a NCAA South Regional appearance, he led his squad to a 24-7 record, despite losing four starters from the previous year. The squad, which featured 10 new players, went 9-3 in conference play and advanced to the championship game of the league tournament. Helfer's direction helped several Blazers earn individual honors, led by Curnell, who earned All-America status from the National Association of Basketball Coaches while also being named to the All-Gulf South Conference squad. Curnell and Lewis each earned GSC All-Tournament honors during the season while Helfer was named the GSC East Division Coach of the Year at the conclusion of the season.

Helfer turned in perhaps his finest coaching performance the year after the magical 2009-10 season as he again directed his squad to a 20-win season, despite having to completely retol and reload his squad after massive losses from the previous year's team. The 2010-11 Valdosta State team lost nine out of the 12 players that led the team to the 2009-10 Elite Eight, which accounted for 78.3 percent of the team's scoring and 83.0 percent of its rebounding.

With an entirely new squad, Helfer led his squad to a 21-9 record and a second place finish in the GSC's East Division. Two Blazers, Kevin Harris and Christian Hunter, earned All-Gulf South Conference honors while the team tallied 277 three-pointers on the season, a new school record. The 21 victories gave Valdosta State its third straight season of 20 or more wins, marking just the second time in school history VSU accomplished that feat, with the other occurrence coming during between 1965 and 1968.

After going 11-16 in 2011-12, Helfer once again proved his ability as a team builder as he returned just one player for his 2012-13 squad. The job Helfer turned in during his seventh year was nothing short of masterful as he molded a collection of new players into a team that improved with each passing game. The 2012-13 Blazers finished the year with a 19-10 record, including a 9-9 mark in GSC play, but saved their best for last as they charged through the GSC Tournament, including an upset of sixth-ranked Alabama-Huntsville, before falling 65-62 to Christian Brothers in the Championship game.

Three Blazers earned All-Gulf South Conference honors at the end of the 2012-13 season, including Josh Sparks, who earned All-Region honors after setting a new VSU and GSC record with 100 blocks on the season. He was joined on the All-GSC team by guard Patrick Diop and forward James Anacreon.

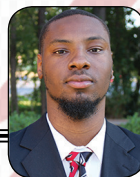

Helfer inherited a team that averaged 68.0 points a game in 2004-05 and led it to a 17-11 mark while averaging 83.5 points a game in 2005-06, his first season at the helm of the Blazers. Helfer's first squad went 7-7 in Gulf South Conference play and finished tied for fourth in the league's East Division. Two of Helfer's players, Jon Rogers (First) and Michael Crane (Second), were named to the All-GSC team while Rogers also earned All-GSC Tournament honors after VSU advanced to the tournament's quarterfinals.

Blazers Outlast FVSU for 83-81 Win in Season Opener

Valdosta State Wins, 83-81

VALDOSTA, Ga. — The Valdosta State men's basketball team survived a scare down the stretch to lock up an 83-81 win over Fort Valley State at the Gulf South Conference/Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Crossover on Saturday in Pensacola, Fla.

Fort Valley State's production in the paint proved to be problematic for the Blazers throughout the night, as the Wildcats put up 40 points on the inside. Valdosta State used a solid effort off the bench, however, to help even things out. Led by Clay Guillotzet's 10-point performance, Valdosta State benefited from 26 points off the bench.

By halftime, the Blazers were well in control of the contest with a 48-32 lead. In that first period, VSU shot 63.0 percent from the field and connected on 9-of-17 from beyond the arc for a sizzling 52.9 percent three-point shooting percentage. Meanwhile, the Blazer defense held FVSU to just a 36.4 shooting percentage from the field prior to the half.

The second half was a bit of a different story, as the Blazers cooled off from the field while the Wildcats racked up 19 field goals on 38 tries for a 50 percent second-half shooting effort. The offensive performance helped Fort Valley string together a 10-2 run in the final two minutes of the game, but the Wildcats misfired on a last second shot to allow VSU to escape with the win.

Overall, the Blazers outshot the Wildcats by over 10 percentage points from the field, and a 25-point performance by Preseason All-GSC selection Beau Justice helped lead the way. Justice finished 7-of-10 overall and 5-of-7 from the three point line, while both KJ James and Winston Morgan each added 12.

For the Wildcats, Tyler Edwards did a majority of the offensive damage with 21 points, while three other players reached double-digit figures in the scoring column. Valdosta State picked up the win despite being outrebounded 41-32 on the night.

Stellar Shooting Leads to 100-76 Blazer Win

Valdosta State Wins, 100-76

PENSACOLA, Fla. — The Valdosta State men's basketball team connected nine times from the three point line on 11 attempts in the second half to run away with a 100-76 win over the Albany State Golden Rams in south region NCAA basketball action at the SIAC/GSC Crossover on Sunday afternoon in Pensacola, Fla.

Jimmy Kodet constructed a breakout offensive effort with a career-high 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the floor and a 4-of-6 performance from three-point range. Meanwhile, Beau Justice delivered his second straight 20-plus point effort with 21 points on 7-of-11 shooting and a 5-of-7 effort from long distance.

The sharpshooting display of the Blazer offense wasn't just limited to the second half, as Valdosta State connected on 16-of-28 from long distance over the course of the entire game for a 57.1 percent three-point shooting effort. The percentage marked the highest for the program since February 18, 2016, when former Blazer Jeremiah Hill connected on a school record 11 threes in Livingston, Ala. Newcomers Winston Morgan and Tyrone Sam rounded out the long distance assault with four and three treys, respectively.

Valdosta State's offense produced a balanced attack, with six different players reaching double-digit figures in the scoring column. KJ James and Clay Guillotzet were among those six, and both finished just shy of a double-double with nine rebounds each.

With the victory, the Blazers improved to 2-0 on the young season, while the Golden Rams fell to 0-2. As representatives of the Gulf South Conference in the weekend crossover, both West Florida and VSU were a perfect 3-0 against Fort Valley State and Albany State heading into the final matchup between West Florida and FVSU later on Sunday afternoon.

Blazer Basketball Stays Perfect With 75-61 Win Valdosta State Wins, 75-61

TUSKEGEE, ALA. - The Valdosta State men's basketball team outlasted a pesky Tuskegee team to extend their early season winning streak to three with a 75-61 win in non-conference action on Saturday afternoon in Tuskegee, Ala.

The Blazers didn't perform at their full potential on offense in the close-quarters arena, but a strong defensive effort and a gritty performance in the remaining facets of the game allowed Head Coach Mike Helfer's crew to compensate for a below-average shooting performance.

Valdosta State's rebounding effort was indeed a key to the Blazers success on the afternoon, and the statistics backed up that sentiment. Tuskegee (0-4) hauled in just 28 rebounds in the contest, a number dwarfed by VSU's number of 45 total boards. Furthermore, 16 of the Blazers' rebounds were on the offensive end, which led Valdosta State to 20 second chance points. In comparison, the Golden Tigers scored just seven put-back points on five offensive rebounds.

The Blazers benefited from a gutsy performance by Greg Zuppas, who came off the bench and nearly put up a double-double with 12 rebounds and nine points. KJ James reached the double-double mark for the first time this season with 12 boards and 12 points in the game, and Tyrone Sam led the team offensively with his second straight 20-point performance.

As a team, the Blazers shot just 40 percent (22-of-55) from the floor and 20 percent (4-of-20) from beyond the arc. The red and black softened the blow from the free throw line, however, with 27 points and a 75 percent (27-of-36) shooting effort from the stripe.

"We have a long way to go, but we are getting better in areas of concern," added Helfer. "We are certainly looking forward to playing in The Complex on Tuesday for our first home game of the year."

Blazers Unload on Mariners for 121-82 Victory Valdosta State Wins, 121-82

VALDOSTA, Ga. - Another sharp shooting effort by the Valdosta State men's basketball team led to a 121-82 rout of the Coastal Georgia Mariners in Tuesday night's home opener in Valdosta, Ga.

Labrian Shiflet came off the bench for 30 of the Blazers' 51 bench points, which helped fuel VSU to the convincing non-conference win. Shiflet shot 10-of-12 from the field and connected on 5-of-7 from the three point line to highlight a 51.3 percent (7-of-17) long range shooting performance from Head Coach Mike Helfer's squad. Furthermore, the Blazers buried 42-of-79 from the field for 53.2 percent.

"One of the great things about this team, is that we have so many guys that can make threes," said Helfer after the team's fourth consecutive win. "It's hard for teams to defend, because you never know who's going to get it going on any given night. Tonight, Labrian had it going, Winston Morgan hit a bunch of threes, and Beau Justice hit a bunch of threes, and even though Jimmy Kodet wasn't on target tonight, he can really shoot it great too. This is going to be a team effort all year, and we just have to keep the mindset of team over individual, like we did tonight."

Four additional players reached double figures on offense, including Morgan with 21, Justice with 19, Tyrone Sam with 15, and KJ James with 11. James also pulled down eight rebounds, falling just short of a double-double.

The Blazers' defensive effort complemented the performance, as the team racked up 12 steals while forcing 16 Mariner turnovers and adding six blocked shots.

With the win, Valdosta State improved to 4-0 on the year, while the Mariners fell to 5-4.

Sam's Career High Leads Basketball to 94-88 Win

Valdosta State Wins, 94-88

VALDOSTA, Ga. - Tyrone Sam dropped 33 points and Beau Justice poured in 22 to help lead the Valdosta State men's basketball team to a 94-88 victory over Fayetteville State in non-conference men's basketball action on Saturday afternoon at The Complex.

The Blazers (5-0) entered Saturday's contest as the Gulf South Conference leaders in points scored per game with an average of 94.5 per contest. Valdosta State needed every bit of that offensive production to outlast the Broncos (1-3), who shot 44.2 percent from the field and were led by the 27 points of Josh Bryant.

Valdosta State wasn't as productive from the three point line as they have grown accustomed to during the young season, but a 51.6 percent shooting effort from the field helped even out the afternoon for Helfer's squad.

After the Broncos outscored the Blazers 14-4 during the final four minutes of the first half to close VSU's lead to 35-33, VSU came out of the break with guns blazing for a 20-5 run in the first six minutes of the second half. The surge gave the Blazers their biggest lead of the afternoon at 55-38, but Fayetteville State refused to backdown.

A pesky Broncos squad closed the gap to just eight near the ten minute mark in the second half, but Valdosta State weathered the storm during the final ten minutes to hold the opposition at bay.

KJ Morgan complemented Sam and Justice on offense with 13 points, while Winston James efficiently managed the distribution with eight assists on the afternoon.

Sam's career high performance included a 10-of-13 effort from the field. Twelve of his 33 points came from the free throw line, as the junior shot 12-of-14 from the stripe. Meanwhile, Justice connected on 8-of-13 from the field and 3-of-6 from the three point line. Justice is now averaging 19.8 points per game, which places the junior 5th on the current GSC leaderboard.

Blazers Torch Warriors to Cap Off Classic

Valdosta State Wins, 104-68

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The No. 20 ranked Blazers of Valdosta State delivered another impressive offensive effort in a 104-68 non-conference win over Webber International in men's basketball action on Sunday afternoon at The Complex in Valdosta, Ga.

The Blazers enjoyed another balanced outing on the attack, as five different players reached double-digit figures in the scoring column. Junior Beau Justice paced the team with 20 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field and a 3-of-8 display from beyond the arc. The performance marked Justice's fourth game in which he has scored 20 or more points. His average of 19.8 points per game currently places him fifth in the Gulf South Conference. Justice did a little bit of everything in the game, adding three steals, five assists, five rebounds, and one block to round out his performance.

Valdosta State ripped off 35 points in the first ten minutes of the contest, all while allowing the Warriors to score just four buckets and two free throws for 11 total points. A drought ensued for the Blazer offense, however, which allowed Webber to string together a 19-6 run and pull to within 11 at 41-30 with 4:29 to play in the first half.

Winston Morgan helped right the ship though, with a timely three ball that sparked a 14-7 run in the final minutes of the opening frame for VSU and afforded the Blazers a 55-37 lead at the break.

Valdosta State's offensive onslaught continued after the break, while the Blazer defense held Webber International to just 31 points on 11-of-34 shooting (32.4 percent) from the field in the second half. Furthermore, the Warriors were able to connect just once on 11 second half three pointer attempts in the final 20 minutes.

One of the brightest spots of the game for Valdosta State was the team's efficiency at the free throw line. In 31 attempts, the Blazers hit 26, which resulted in a 83.9 percent shooting effort from the stripe throughout the afternoon.

Jimmy Kodet and Clay Guillozet teamed up for 21 of Valdosta State's 52 rebounds in the contest, and each reached double-digit figures in both the rebounding and scoring columns. The double-doubles were the first of the season for both players.

Argonauts Escape With 97-88 Win in League Opener West Florida Wins, 97-88

PENSACOLA, Fla. - A late push by the Valdosta State men's basketball team came up short, as the West Florida Argonauts held off the Blazers for a 97-88 victory over the Blazers in Saturday's Gulf South Conference opener at the UWF Field House in Pensacola, Fla.

The victory improved the Argonauts to a perfect 8-0 start on the season, while the Blazers suffered their first loss of the season to fall to 6-1 overall.

West Florida led for most of the evening and extended their lead to as many as 12 points with under eight minutes to play in regulation. The Blazers remained resolute, however, and used the next five minutes to whittle away at the Argonauts' lead. Valdosta State pulled to within two points after a Winston Morgan layup at the 2:25 mark in the second half, but UWF managed to hold off the surging Blazers long enough to score at the 1:08 mark and open up a two-possession, 90-86 lead. The Argonauts used free throws down the stretch to hold VSU at bay.

Tyrone Sam delivered another solid outing for the Blazers with 20 points on 6-of-10 shooting from the field and a 7-of-8 night from the free throw line. In addition, Winston Morgan added 16 points, thanks to a 4-of-6 effort from beyond the arc.

Darryl Tucker, who leads the UWF squad in both scoring and rebounds, was the difference maker for the Argonauts. The forward poured in 27 points after a nearly perfect 11-of-12 shooting effort from the field. Furthermore, Moter Deng added 22 points, 10 of which came from the free throw line.

Blazers Roll to 107-81 Win Over Tuskegee Valdosta State Wins, 107-81

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The Valdosta State Blazers returned to form on Tuesday night and cruised to a dominant 107-81 win over Tuskegee in non-conference action at The Complex.

The Blazer offense reached the century mark in points scored for the fourth time this season, thanks in part to the efforts of Beau Justice, KJ James, and Tyrone Sam, who each scored 20-plus points in the contest. Justice led the way with 25, while James and Sam added 22 and 21, respectively.

"KJ is a senior this year and I think he sees that senior cliff, in that he knows his collegiate career is coming to an end," said Head Coach Mike Helfer of James, who delivered what was arguably his most aggressive effort of the season. "I think he's trying squeeze everything he can out of every minute. He's playing hard, he's playing smart, and he's playing aggressive, and I enjoyed seeing that from him tonight."

Despite falling behind 40-19 a little over midway through the opening period, the Tigers managed to keep the game respectable throughout the night and even pulled to within as few as 10 three different times in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Valdosta State used a 54.9 percent shooting effort to maintain control of the contest and eventually run away with the convincing win. The Blazers also won the rebounding battle 41-31, which led to 16 second chance points, and VSU also enjoyed an impressive 41-point performance off the bench by the reserves.

With the win, the Blazers remained perfect at home and improved to 7-1 overall. Meanwhile, the Tigers dropped to 1-8 on the season.

Blazers Fall to FVSU After Rare Shooting Drought

Fort Valley State Wins, 82-68

FORT VALLEY, Ga. - The Valdosta State men's basketball team suffered a rare scoring drought in the second half, which resulted in an 82-68 loss to the Fort Valley State Wildcats on Tuesday night in Fort Valley, Ga.

The Blazers used a quick layup and a three ball by Winston Morgan in the first minute of the contest to jump out to a 5-0 lead over the Wildcats. The advantage was one the Blazers would hang on to for the first eight minutes of the game, until the Wildcats turned the game around midway through the first half and took a 27-19 lead with three straight three-pointers.

With the help of a strong 13-point first half by Jimmy Kodet, Valdosta State whittled FVSU's lead away throughout the remainder of the first half and pulled even with a fastbreak dunk by KJ James with just 14 seconds left in the frame. However, a two-handed put-back dunk by Glenn Holloway in the final seconds put FVSU back in front for a 36-34 lead at intermission.

The second half proved to be the beginning of the end for the Blazers, thanks in large part to a downward spiral on offense for VSU. Valdosta State shot just 8-of-31 from the field for 25.8 percent in the second half and connected on just 1-of-11 from three point range for a paltry 9.1 percent. As a result, the Wildcats outscored the Blazers 46-34 in the final period to run away with the victory.

Tyrone Sam led the way for the Blazers with 15 points, while Justin McBride made his Blazer debut with nine rebounds to tie Clay Guillozet for the team lead on the boards.

With the loss, Valdosta State fell to 7-2 overall. Meanwhile, the Wildcats improved to 6-4 on the season.

Valdosta State will return to Gulf South Conference action this Saturday at 4:00 p.m. against the visiting Montevallo Falcons. The contest will mark the first conference game of the season to take place at The Complex.

Historic Night Results in Triple Overtime Win

Valdosta State Wins, 139-135

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The Valdosta State Blazers racked up more points than any other game in Blazer basketball history with a historic 139-134 triple overtime victory over Montevallo in Gulf South Conference action at The Complex on Saturday night.

The Falcons chipped away at a 15-point Valdosta State lead throughout the first half of the second period before pulling even at 85-85 on a layup by Jamaar Taylor with 7:32 to play in regulation. The contest then transformed into a back-and-forth affair, as the two teams traded buckets down the stretch.

Inside the one minute mark, VSU took a 100-97 lead on a jumper by Beau Justice, but Tyler Brough connected on one of his seven three pointers at the 0:30 mark to send the game into overtime. The initial overtime period featured five lead changes, before Montevallo used a circus three-point shot by Taylor to open up a 113-109 lead with 12 seconds remaining. When all seemed lost for the Blazers, KJ James drew a foul at the 0:04 mark and pulled the Blazers to within a single possession deficit on the first of two free throws. On James' second free throw, the senior transfer purposely missed the shot to give VSU an attempt at an offensive rebound. Greg Zuppas was there to save the possession, and threw the ball off of a Montevallo player as he recovered it just before falling out of bounds. With two seconds to go, the inbound pass from underneath ended up in the hands of Zuppas, who buried his first three of the season from the right corner as time expired to tie the game at 113-113 and force double overtime.

Double overtime was more of the same, as the two teams went toe-to-toe throughout to send the game to yet another overtime period. With the score knotted at 124-124, Valdosta State finally managed to extend the game beyond the Falcons' reach, thanks in large part to a pair of timely three point shots by Jimmy Kodet, who finished with a career-high 21 points in the game.

Taylor racked up a game-high 40 points in the game on a 14-of-28 performance from the field, and Chris Williams scored 36 points, 17 of which came on 19 attempts from the free throw line. Valdosta State countered the duo, however, with a balanced offensive effort that saw seven different players post double-digit figures in the scoring column. Furthermore, Justice, Kodet, and Winston Morgan each scored 20-plus. All 24 of Morgan's points came on three point shooting, as the junior shot 8-of-10 from the field and connected on each of his five three point attempts in the first half.

The win, which replaced a 136-point night against Troy State in 1991-92 for a new school record, marked Valdosta State's first Gulf South Conference victory of the 2017-18 season and moved the Blazers to 8-2 overall and 1-1 in league play. Meanwhile, the Falcons dropped to 6-6 on the year and fell to 1-2 against conference opponents.

Blazers Take Down Tigers, 80-73

Valdosta State Wins, 80-73

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The Valdosta State men's basketball team used another energetic effort to outlast the West Alabama Tigers in an 80-73 Gulf South Conference victory on Monday night at The Complex.

"West Alabama is a lot better than they played tonight," said Head Coach Mike Helfer, who saw his team's record lift to 9-2 overall and 2-1 in GSC play after the win. "I thought we did a really good job defensively as a team. One player did go a little bananas offensively, but I thought we did a pretty good job limiting the rest of their team."

The contest was tightly contested throughout the first eight minutes, which led to a 16-16 tie at the 11:56 mark in the opening frame. Less than one minute later, however, Justin McBride connected on a shot at point blank range to ignite the Blazers for seven unanswered points, and VSU used that momentum to extend their lead to 41-28 at intermission.

In the second half, the Blazers really got it going, particularly in the first five minutes of the second half, when VSU outscored West Alabama 15-10. The stretch gave Valdosta State their biggest lead of the game at 56-38 with 14:49 left in regulation. The lead proved to be insurmountable for the visiting Tigers, who were led offensively by the 37 points of Charles Eaton.

KJ James delivered a season-high 24 points in the game on 9-of-15 shooting from the field and a perfect 5-of-5 effort from the free throw line. The senior provided the Blazers with a strong presence inside, which led to 26 points in the paint for the red and black. Furthermore, Beau Justice poured in 16, despite a clear effort by the Tigers to limit the junior guard's opportunities.

As a team, Valdosta State posted another strong offensive outing with a 50.0 percent performance (28-of-56) from the field and a 42.3 percent effort (11-of-26) from the three point line. Most impressive, however, was the team's free throw shooting display, which resulted in a season-high 32.9 percentage from the stripe. Valdosta State is now shooting 74.5 percent from the free throw line this season, which places the Blazers 3rd overall in the Gulf South Conference.

Blazers Prevail Again; Defeats Lee in Overtime

Valdosta State Wins, 93-82

CLEVELAND, Tenn. - The "Cardiac Kids" of Valdosta State men's basketball prevailed for their third straight Gulf South Conference victory when they defeated Lee 93-82 road triumph over the Lee Flames on Tuesday night in Cleveland, Tenn.

The contest featured 10 ties and seven lead changes, but Lee held the advantage for over 30 of the 40 minutes of regulation throughout the first and second halves. Valdosta State remained resilient, however, and hung around long enough to keep the game close as the final minutes ticked away in the second half.

With 2:02 remaining Lee's Levi Wood buried a long three pointer to put the Flames up 76-69. The shot looked like a potential dagger in the heart of the Blazers, but Winston Morgan altered the narrative with a clutch three ball 30 seconds later to pull VSU back to within four.

Valdosta State's defense stepped up on the ensuing possession and forced a Bryce Copeland turnover, which allowed Morgan a chance to draw a foul inside the one minute mark. Morgan converted on both free throws to narrow the deficit to 76-74, and yet another defensive stop by the Blazers set the stage for a potential game-tying shot. With 7.2 seconds on the clock, Beau Justice drove the lane to draw in the Lee defenders before dishing off to KJ James for an easy layup from point blank range.

James' game-saving bucket forced an overtime period for the second time in three games, and the Blazers used the extra minutes to outscore the Flames 17-6 and run away with the gutsy win.

Beau Justice served as the top offensive performer for Valdosta State and produced the highest point total of his career against a GSC opponent with 29 points on 9-of-18 shooting from the field and a 3-of-4 effort from the three point line. The only time Justice scored more points in a single game was in a non-conference game against Lynn on November 26, 2016.

Clay Guillozet complemented Justice's performance with a career-best 24 points on 10-of-17 shooting and a 4-of-4 performance from the free throw line. Each of Guillozet's free throws were critical shots down the stretch, and six of the Ohio native's overall point total represented the first points scored by either team during the overtime period. Guillozet performed particularly well after the half with 10 points in the second half and 10 points in overtime, as Head Coach Mike Helfer continuously called on his West Liberty transfer while Lee struggled to solve the 6'4" guard.

Valdosta State Wins Fourth Straight

Valdosta State Wins, 91-77

VALDOSTA, Ga. - The Valdosta State men's basketball team stayed red hot on Thursday night with their fourth consecutive Gulf South Conference win, after defeating the Shorter Hawks 91-77 on the road at Winthrop-King Center in Rome, Ga.

KJ James served as the game breaker for Valdosta State on the night, pouring in a career high 32 points, which eclipsed his 24-point effort against West Alabama on December 18th to set a new career-high for the senior forward.

Shorter (1-13, 1-5 GSC) gave the Blazers (11-2, 4-1 GSC) trouble throughout the first half of the contest, and Drew Thomas closed out the frame with a long three inside the final five seconds of the first half to put the Hawks on top 34-33 at the break.

The Blazers weathered the storm, however, and with the spark of a Jimmy Kodet three ball during the first minute of the second half, the Blazers took a lead that they would never again relinquish.

Beau Justice, who was named the GSC Player of the Week a few hours prior to tipoff, delivered another 20-plus point performance with 23 points on 7-of-10 shooting from the field and a 3-of-4 effort from long distance. In addition, Justice hit 6-of-6 from the free throw line, extending his total of consecutive free throws to 19 straight and improving his free throw percentage to 91.5 on the year. Justice leads the league in free throw shooting and represents the only player to have a percentage above 90 percent.

Despite allowing 33 points to forward Josh Burnett, the Blazer defense held the Hawks to just 6-of-24 from the three point line for 25.0 percent. Perimeter defense, along with poor free throw shooting by Shorter, allowed the Blazers to retain momentum heading into the weekend.
