STORYLINES

• C-N will effort to buck a recent trend of road struggles in the playoffs. Trips outside Jeff City haven't been fun for Carson-Newman. The Eagles are 2-14 away from Burke-Tarr Stadium in the Division II playoffs. The Eagles' two victories came in the quarterfinals of the 2009 playoffs against North Alabama and in the first round of the 2003 postseason with a win over Valdosta State. Carson-Newman is 39-19-1 in postseason play all-time under Sparks. The legendary head coach is 17-1 in Division II playoff games played at Mossy Creek

• In Carson-Newman's 15 trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs, this marks the fifth time the Eagles will open up with a road playoff game. C-N lost in 1993 and 1994 at North Alabama, won in 2003 at Valdosta State and lost in 2008 to the Blazers. Carson-Newman is 13-3 all-time in the first round of the NCAA playoffs, albeit just 1-3 on the road.

• Valdosta State ended Carson-Newman's run in the 2012 playoffs 46-28, not many Eagles were on the roster back then. Carson-Newman counts longsnapper Dusty Nance, offensive lineman Tyler Scott, wideout TraShaun Ward (who returned three kicks for 46 yards) and wideout Steven Isom (targeted for two passes that were both broken up) as players who dressed out and appeared. Goose Manning and De'Andre Thomas also made that trip as a freshman.

• Now VSU's all-time leading rusher, Cedric O'Neal was just a freshman on that 2012 squad. That game, he carved Carson-Newman for 193 yards on 15 carries and three scores.

LAST TIME V. VALDOSTA ST.

VALDOSTA, Ga. – The Carson-Newman Eagles (9-3) fell to the Valdosta State Blazers (10-2) by a score of 48-26 in the quarterfinals of the 2012 NCAA Division II Football Championship at Bazemore-Hyder Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

After leading 20-14 at halftime, the Eagles were outscored 34-6 in the second half as the Blazers clinched a berth into the national semifinals with the victory.

"We fought hard," said Carson-Newman head coach Ken Sparks. "We've got a group of kids that have great heart. We're not as good as a lot of teams in the country in 'inches and pounds' but we've got a lot of heart. I'm really proud of these guys and what they accomplished this year."

After Carson-Newman's first drive ended with a Curt Duncan (Morristown, Tenn.) 27-yard field goal, Valdosta State scored a pair of rushing touchdowns to lead 14-3 at the end of the first quarter.

The Eagles grabbed the momentum in the second half with a 15-play, 97-yard drive that ended in a one-yard touchdown rush for Andy HIbbett (Corryton, Tenn.) to cut the Blazer lead to 14-10 with 7:11 left in the quarter. After the Eagles forced Valdosta State to go three-and-out on the next drive, Brandon Baker (Miami, Fla.) rushed for a 32-yard touchdown run on Carson-Newman's first play of the drive to give the Eagles a 17-14 advantage with 5:44 left before halftime.

Valdosta State's next drive ended when Carson-Newman's Issac Kinley (Johnson City, Tenn.) intercepted a Cayden Cochran pass and returned it to the Blazer 22-yard line. Duncan added his second field goal of the half to give the Eagles a 20-14 lead with 3:27 before halftime. Carson-Newman maintained that lead after a goal-line stand, holding off the Blazers on a fourth and goal at the one-yard line, giving the Eagles a six-point halftime advantage.

In the third quarter, the first Eagle drive ended in Duncan's longest field goal of the day, a 42-yard kick that put the lead at 23-14. Cochran connected with Seantavious Jones on a 37-yard touchdown pass for Valdosta State that ended Carson-Newman's 20-0 run and cut the Eagle lead to 23-21. Carson-Newman's next drive ended in Duncan's fourth field goal from 22 yards out to put the lead at 26-21 with 8:09 left in the third quarter.

Duncan's field goal would be the last points of the day for Carson-Newman. The Blazers took the lead on their next drive with Cochran completing a 20-yard touchdown pass to Chris Anderson to give Valdosta a 28-26 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Blazers extended their advantage with a Cedric O'Neal three-yard touchdown rush, yet the point-after attempt was no good, putting the score at 34-26 with 11:50 remaining in the game. After the Eagles could not convert on third and nine on their next drive, Carson-Newman attempted a fake punt with a direct snap to Hibbett, yet he was stopped for a one yard gain to give the ball back to Valdosta at the Carson-Newman 32 yard line.

Despite the short field, the Carson-Newman stood tall on defense for the next three plays before Valdosta State chose to go for the first down on fourth and seven. The Eagles had a strong pass rush on Cochran, but he scrambled and hit an open Quin Roberson in the endzone for a 29-yard touchdown pass that would give the Blazers a 41-26 lead with just over eight minutes remaining.

The Blazers added their final touchdown on their next drive when O'Neal rushed for a 16-yard

RANKING NOTES

• Carson-Newman saw a streak of 27 consecutive weeks in the AFCA Top 25 snapped when it lost in back-to-back weeks last year to Lenoir-Rhyne and Newberry. The Eagles received votes in the final two polls of the 2014 season.
• Carson-Newman is receiving votes to start the 2015 season, this marks the first time since 2012 that the Eagles have started the year unranked.

• The Eagles haven't found the top 10 since reaching number 10 in week four of the 2013 poll. The Eagles promptly fell out of the top 10 that year with a 25-22 upset loss at home to Catawba.
• The last time Carson-Newman was ranked in the top 10 for a preseason poll was 2010. The Eagles were coming off a semifinal loss to Grand Valley State in 2009 and began the year ranked ninth. However, the Eagles dropped their opener to Winona State and fell to 16.

• Ken Sparks is a voting member of the AFCA poll. He ranked Carson-Newman 25th in the poll's first iteration.

30's usually the key

Normally when Carson-Newman scores 30 points, you can mark the Eagles down for a win. The Eagles' 41-31 loss to Wayne State in 2014 broke a 26-game win streak for C-N when it had scored at least 30 points. The Ealges would fall again when scoring 30 that season against L-R. The Eagles last loss when cresting the 30-point mark was 2010 in overtime to Wingate 38-35. A 2008 loss to Tusculum 45-44 and a 2001 loss to the Pioneers 37-36 are the only other times this century where C-N has lost when scoring more than 30 points. Carson-Newman is 230-10 all-time under Ken Sparks when it crests the 30-point mark.

Losses when C-N scores 30 or more
1993 - 62-31 New Haven
1994 - 36-32 Mars Hill
1999 - 58-52 4OT Northwest Missouri State
2000 - 45-42 Presbyterian
2001 - 37-36 Tusculum
2007 - 55-49 Catawba
2008 - 45-44 Tusculum
2010 - 38-35 Wingate
2014 - 41-31 Wayne State
2014 - 35-32 Lenoir-Rhyne

Pick, pick, pick, pick, pick

Carson-Newman had a whopping five interceptions against the North Greenville Crusaders. That tied a school record. The five interceptions matches two other five INT days. The Eagles picked off five passes at Western Oregon early in the 2000 season and snagged five picks in the regular season finale against Wingate in 2003.

7 x 30

Carson-Newman had seven different players all rush for at least 30 yards in the Eagles' 69-28 win at Limestone. It's just the third time that's happened for Carson-Newman since the year 2000. The last time was a 2009 win over Brevard 77-7. Antonio Wimbush (86), Marcus Williams (60), Noah Suber (51), Jared Dillingham (47), Damian Baker (37), Jamal Jones (34) and De'Andre Thomas (30) all crested that plateau for the Eagles against the Saints.

Sparks on the all-time wins list

Carson-Newman head football coach moved into a tie for fifth on the all-time wins list with Oct. 31's 69-28 win over Limestone. Sparks then took over sole possesion of the spot wth a 48-45 win over North Greenville. Strangely enough, Sparks took sole possesion of fifth place on the wins list for a second straight season against North Greenville. Sparks moved into sole possession of the spot last year with a 35-34 win over NGU on homecoming, passing Alabama's Bear Bryant. Then, over the summer, the NCAA reinstated Joe Paterno's wins, placing him back in second on the wins list and moving Sparks down a spot.

Sparks at 200

Carson-Newman head football coach Ken Sparks won his 200th career South Atlantic Conference game against Wingate in overtime. Sparks, already the SAC's all-time leader in conference wins, joined four other men with 200 career conference victories. The all-time leader in wins John Gagliardi had a stunnning 364 conference wins with

Overtime triumph

Carson-Newman's overtime win at Wingate in week eight snapped a number of streaks. One, it ended a three-game losing streak against ranked competition. Two, it ended a three-game losing streak for C-N in overtime games. Carson-Newman hadn't won in OT since defeating Catawba 40-34 in overtime during the 2001 season. Finally, Carson Wise's game-winning/game-ending field goal was the first such kick for Carson-Newman since Carlos Lopez connected on a walkoff 27-yard field goal in a 27-24 win for the Eagles over Brevard in 2011.

Long way to the top

After playing roughly 25 snaps combined in his first three seasons at Carson-Newman, redshirt junior Justin Long has risen to the occasion in 2015. Long was named SAC Player of the Week after he blocked two kicks against Newberry. The two blocked kicks matches Jarrett East-Brown's single game record set in the regular season finale in 2012 against Mars Hill.

Hung Half-a-Hundred

Carson-Newman has allowed two teams, the University of the Cumberlands (56) and Lenoir-Rhyne (52), to crack the half-century mark this season. Two teams haven't scored 50 points on C-N in the same season since losing to Tennessee 73-0 and Kentucky 58-6 during the 1929 season.

Bears on Top

Carson-Newman suffered its fourthconsecutive defeat at the hands of the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears in week five of 2015. This puts L-R in some exclusive company. The Bears surpassed Wingate (2010-12) and Elon (1980-82 & 1984-86) as the only teams to defeat a Ken Sparks-coached team on three consecutive occasions. Lenoir-Rhyne is the only team to ever defeat Carson-Newman four times in consecutive seasons., North Alabama won four in a row against the Eagles from games spanning from 1998-2009 before the Eagles defeated the Lions in the 2009 quarterfinal round off the playoffs 24-21.

Ranked Rundown

Carson-Newman has played two squads in the national rankings in 2015 in then #22 Lenoir-Rhyne and then #21 Wingate. The Eagles lost to the Bears 52-17 and defeated Wingate in OT 41-38. The win over the Bulldogs snapped a three-game losing skid against ranked competition. The Eagles are 34-27 since entering Division II against ranked competition but just 5-10 since 2008. Last year when the Eagles played L–R, the Bears were ranked fourth in the country, which was Carson-Newman's 21st meeting with a team in the top 5 - the Eagles are 7-14 in such games.

Damian Baker the Touchdown Maker

Carson-Newman running back Damian Baker (Columbus, Miss.) snagged the first South Atlantic Conference Player of the Week honor of his career, the league office announced Monday morning. Baker cemented himself in the Carson-Newman record books with his performance Saturday in the Eagles' 62-38 win over Mars Hill. Baker rushed for 249 yards and four scores, both career highs for Baker. The 249 yards amounted to the seventh highest single game rushing tally in Carson-Newman football history and the four touchdown-day is the eighth time a C-N back has done that since 2004. It is the 35th 200-yard rushing performance by a C-N running back all-time. Baker reeled of rushing touchdowns of 64, 52, 42 and two yards. It's the first four touchdown day for an Eagle since Andy Hibbett went for four scores against Wayne State last year, Baker ranks second in the nation in scoring and rushing touchdowns. He's averaging 15 points per game and has 10 scores. He is sixth in the nation in rushing yards with 646.

Mars Hill at 100

Mars Hill ran 100 plays against Carson-Newman in the Eagles 62-38 win over the Lions. The century mark of total offense attempts marks the most plays that has ever been run against Carson-Newman in school history. It marks just the third time that a team has run more than 90 plays on the Eagles. The Lions gained 536 yards of total offense, the sixth most yards the Eagles have ever allowed.

Go Long Tra

When De'Andre Thomas hooked up for a 75-yard completion to TraShaun Ward against Catawba, it marked the first time the Eagles had a pass go 75 yards since Justin Long snagged a 78-yarder against Concord in 2008. That's a span of 84 games and 2,579 days. Ward would go long again against Newberry tallying a 73-yard reception. Much like his catch against Catawba, he was also kept out of the end zone on the play. Ward has a pair of 100-yard games this season, the first Eagle over the 100-yard mark in receiving yards twice in one season since Reggie Hubbard accomplished the feat in 2009.

Welp, we finally know the punter - and HE'S AWESOME

It took two weeks to witness Christian Ramirez's debut as Carson-Newman's new punter after the Eagles' offense was so mind-bogglingly efficient against Cumberlands that it didn't need to punt. It took just two punts against Shorter for Ramirez to etch his name in the C-N record books. Punting from his own 31, Ramirez had a 68-yarder downed at the one. It's the third longest punt in Carson-Newman football history, trailing Kevin Lanahan's 75-yard punt from 1979 against Newberry and current Dallas Cowboy Chris Jones' 73-yard punt against Winona State from 2010. In his second game, Ramirez punted seven times for 310 yards, both totals rank second in C-N's all-time single game punt totals.

Eagles kept under 300

Carson-Newman was held under 300 yards of total offense against Shorter for the first time since 2013 when the Eagles lost 38-3 to Lenoir-Rhyne in the regular season. Wins have been hard to come by for the Eagles when they fail to gain 300 yards. Carson-Newman had lost seven consecutive games when gaining fewer than 300 yards of total offense. The last time the Eagles won a game with less than 300 yards of total offense was Oct. 17, 2009 at Lenoir-Rhyne (also the last time C-N won in Hickory). The Eagles gained 272 yards that day and squeaked out a 17-13 win over the Bears.

Eagles and UCUM reset records

The combined 115 points (59-56 C-N) are the most ever scored in a Carson-Newman football game and the second most in South Atlantic Conference history. The 56 points the Patriots scored are the second most ever given up by a Ken Sparks-coached team and it marks the most points Carson-Newman has ever allowed in a win. The Eagles' 646 yards of total offense equates to the sixth highest single-game total for the program while C-N's 291 yards through the air ranks for the fifth-most all-time for a Sparks-era team. Carson-Newman completed 14 passes as a team, which is tied for the third highest figure for a Sparks-era team. The Cumberlands' average of 8.2 yards per rush comes up as the most the Eagles have given up per play all-time and the 334 yards of kickoff return yardage against are the second most allowed all-time by the Eagles.

Division II Dominance

Carson-Newman won its 600th game in program history when it beat the University of the Cumberlands 59-56 on opening night. The Eagles (606) have the fourth most wins among DIvision II programs all-time, behind Pittsburg State (687), Tuskegee (665), and Hillsdale (615). Behind Carson-Newman is Central Oklahoma (605).

Opening Night Success

Carson-Newman is 29-6-1 in season-opening games under Carson-Newman head football coach Ken Sparks. Carson-Newman hasn't scored any less than 44 points in an opening day win since 2003 (a 21-14 win over Winston-Salem State) save for last year's 38-24 win over Edinboro. The only losses on opening day in the last decade game in back-to-back years in 2009 and 2010 to Winona State. Carson-Newman has scored more than 70 once, more than 50 four other times. The Eagles have only failed to score less than 40 three times since 1999 in wins.

Return Record Setters

Carson-Newman's kickoff return game was strong in 2015 to the tune of a couple record setting performances. TraShaun Ward has become the program's all-time leader for kickoff return yards in a career with more than 1900 as he continues returning kicks in his senior season. Ward set the single season record with 720 return yards as a freshman. Last year he has split time returning kicks with converted quarterback Lonnie Williams. Williams has responded by bringing back a 100-yard kickoff (the fourth in C-N football history) against Brevard and a 95-yarder against Newberry. Williams becomes the fourth C-N return man with multiple kickoff returns in a single season. Williams joins Willie Lundy (1987), Damon Wright (1990) and Kendal James (1993).

Thursday Night Explosions

Carson-Newman opensed its season on a Thursday night for a fourth consecutive year. In 2012 and 2013, the year's were kind to Carson-Newman. The Eagles lit up Glenville State for more than 500 yards of total offense in a 56-46 shootout victory to give Ken Sparks his 300th win. Then in 2013, the Eagles pushed past the 500-yard mark for total offense again by slugging Wayne State 55-28. In 2014 again, the Eagles surpassed 500 yards of total offense against Edinboro with 515 yards; however, the Fightin Scots held the Eagles under 50 points with a 38-24 C-N win. Carson-Newman has averaged 49.3 points and 551 yards of total offense in their last three Thursday night home openers. The offensive trend continued with 59 points and 646 yards of total offense

C-N's Not in Pole Position

For just the fourth time in 28 years, Carson-Newman's football team hasn't been picked to win the South Atlantic Conference. Four-time defending SAC champion Lenoir-Rhyne was picked by the league's coaches to win the league for a fifth straight year with six first place votes and 55 points overall. The Eagles finished four points behind the Bears with two first place votes and 51 points. This season joins three other occasions where the Eagles weren't picked first were 1986, 2011 and 2012. C-N won the conference title in 1986, one of 14 in the years since. However, the Eagles haven't won a SAC title since 2009, the longest conference title drought in the Ken Sparks era.

Position Leaders

The player committee/position leader is Carson-Newman Football's leadership arm. The body is responsible for guiding the Eagles' not only on the field, but also spiritually as a unit. The group is elected by player vote during spring practice preceding the season. Carson-Newman's game-by-game captains are typically selected from the player committee, but other players may be selected to go to mid-field for the coin toss.

This year's player committee consists of De'Andre Thomas (QB), Derek Evans * (OL), Goose Manning *(QB), Ben Davenport (RB), TraShaun Ward (WR), Tyler Scott (OL), Jordan Pryce (DL), Phalen Booker (DL), Malik Miles (LB), Graham Warren (LB), Jason Williams (DB), Emmanuel Orange (DB)

Behind maestro Mike Turner's split-back veer offense, the Eagles have put up points over the years, so much so that the Eagles have gone 272 games without being shutout. A streak 20 years in the making, Carson-Newman's offense hasn't been shutout since a 14-0 defeat to New Haven in 1992. The New Haven game is one of only two contests where a Ken Sparks coached team has been held without a point. The other was a 2-0 loss to Catawba in 1987. After that, you have to go back 169 more games from there to get to a 26-0 loss to Mars Hill in 1978 to find the next shut out. Carson-Newman's string of games without being shutout is the third-longest streak in the country.

Carson-Newman spent near equal amounts of its 2014 season leading and trailing. The Eagles were ahead for 3:45:07 and behind for 3:35:24 last year.

2015 NCAA RULE CHANGES

- An eight-person officiating system will be allowed if a conference or school chooses. A center judge was used experimentally in several conferences during the past two seasons. The benefits of having the extra official include getting the ball spotted more efficiently and detecting holding and hands-to-the-face penalties.
- A 15-yard unsportsmanlike foul will be called on players who push or pull opponents off piles – for example, after fumbles.
- If a helmet comes off a defensive player in the final minute of a half, 10 seconds will be run off the game clock, and the play clock will be set at 40 seconds. Previously, the play clock was set to 25 seconds.
- Officials will return to giving teams an initial sideline warning when their personnel move out of the designated team bench area.
- Officials will treat illegal equipment issues – such as jerseys tucked under the shoulder pads or exposed back pads – by making the player leave the field for at least one play. The equipment must be corrected for the player to return to the game. The player may remain in the game if his team takes a timeout to correct the equipment issue.
- Instant replay reviews will be allowed to see if a kicking team player blocked the receiving team before the ball traveled 10 yards on onside-kick plays.
- Teams must be provided at least 22 minutes prior to kickoff for pregame warm-ups. Teams may mutually agree to shorten this time period.
- If the play clock runs to 25 seconds before the ball is ready for play, officials will reset the clock to 40 seconds. Previously, the play clock was reset when it reached 20 seconds.
- Based on research findings of the National Football League, non-standard/overbuilt facemasks will be prohibited.

THE SPARKS FILE

HEAD COACH
36th Year
Carson-Newman '68

As Ken Sparks embarks on his 36th season he does so continuing a battle with a cancer that was diagnosed on June 30, 2012.

Christian principles have been the driving force behind Sparks' coaching career. It was his faith that brought him to Carson-Newman in 1980 and it is his faith that will see him through this latest challenge.

He is the winningest active head coach in the country with 334 wins, 91 losses and two ties. Sparks passed legendary Alabama head coach Bear Bryant with a win on homecoming in 2014 over North Greenville. Sparks matched legendary Mount Union head coach Larry Kehres for fifth on the all-time wins list with a 69-28 triumph at Limestone on Halloween 2015.

In 2012 Sparks made history, becoming only the 12th man in college football to record 300 wins. The coach is reluctant to shine the spotlight on himself and his accomplishments. Sparks would instead rather be measured by his impact in the lives of the young men and coaches who've been a part of his Carson-Newman family.

For Coach Sparks, football is a laboratory of learning where he and his staff strive to develop the whole person – educationally, socially, athletically and spiritually. Along the way, Sparks has developed one of the winningest football programs in the history of the sport. The Eagles have won five NAIA National Titles and played for it six times. A move to NCAA Division II didn't slow Sparks' Carson-Newman squad down. The Eagles played for the D-II National Title three times and were a semifinalist in 2009.

The rest of the numbers speak for themselves as Sparks has recorded 21 South Atlantic Conference Championships, 25 NCAA or NAIA playoff appearances and a 334-91-2 record. Sparks holds the all-time record for wins in NCAA Division II and, with the recent retirement of St. John's (Minn.) John Gagliardi and Mount Union's Larry Kehres, Sparks is the activce leader in coaching wins. In fact, at the start of the 2015 season, he was the only active head coach with more than 273 wins (Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer).

Sparks was inducted into the inaugural NCAA Division II Hall of Fame Coaches Class in 2010 along with Northwest Missouri State's Mel Tjeerdsma and West Alabama's Bobby Wallace. Coach Sparks is also a member of the South Atlantic Conference Hall of Fame, the Knoxville Sports Hall of Fame, the Carson-Newman Athletic Hall of Fame, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the NAIA Hall of Fame.

Sparks has been honored with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Lifetime Achievement Award and National Coach of the Year. Sparks was elected president of the American Football Coaches Association in 2007. In 2002 Sparks received the All-American Football Foundation's Johnny Vaught Lifetime Achievement Award.

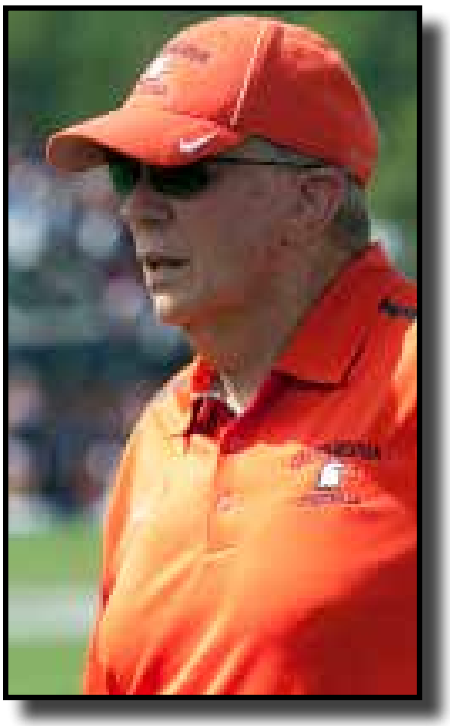

Coach Sparks earned NAIA Coach of the Year honors in 1984. He's been voted SAC Coach of the Year 12 times. Sparks is a two-time winner of the Tennessee Sportswriters Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2002 and was also named Division II Coach of the Year by American Football Coach Magazine.

In 2010, Sparks received the prestigious General Robert R. Neyland Trophy, presented by the Knoxville Quarterback Club for contributing greatly to intercollegiate athletics.

In 2013 he was named Jefferson Countian of the Year by the Jeffeerson County Chamber of Commerce for outstanding committment to the area. Following that he was presented the Uncommon Award by former NFL coach Tony Dungy for "uncommon leadership through character and faith." Sparks has called the Uncommon Award one of the most meaningful of his career along with the lifetime achievement award from the FCA because of what they stand for.

The Eagles' postseason run under Sparks began in 1982, when he guided the Eagles to a 10-2 record and an NAIA playoff berth in his third season. Carson-Newman lost in the opening round of the playoffs that season, but the culture of the Eagles program was forever changed. The next season, C-N won its second-straight SAC-8 title, then captured its first national football title in school history, beating heavily-favored Mesa State 36-28 in the NAIA Champion Bowl.

The Eagles brought home four more titles beginning with a 19-19 tie with Central Arkansas in 1984. Carson-Newman shutout Cameron 17-0 in the 1986 championship game, blew out Adams State 56-21 in 1988 for the title and cruised to a fifth in 1989 with a 34-20 win over Emporia State.

In 2009, After opening the season 0-2, the Eagles reeled off 11 consecutive victories, including a perfect 7-0 mark in the SAC to claim their 21st conference title. C-N fell a game short of making its 11th national title game appearance, falling to Grand Valley State in the Division II semifinals.

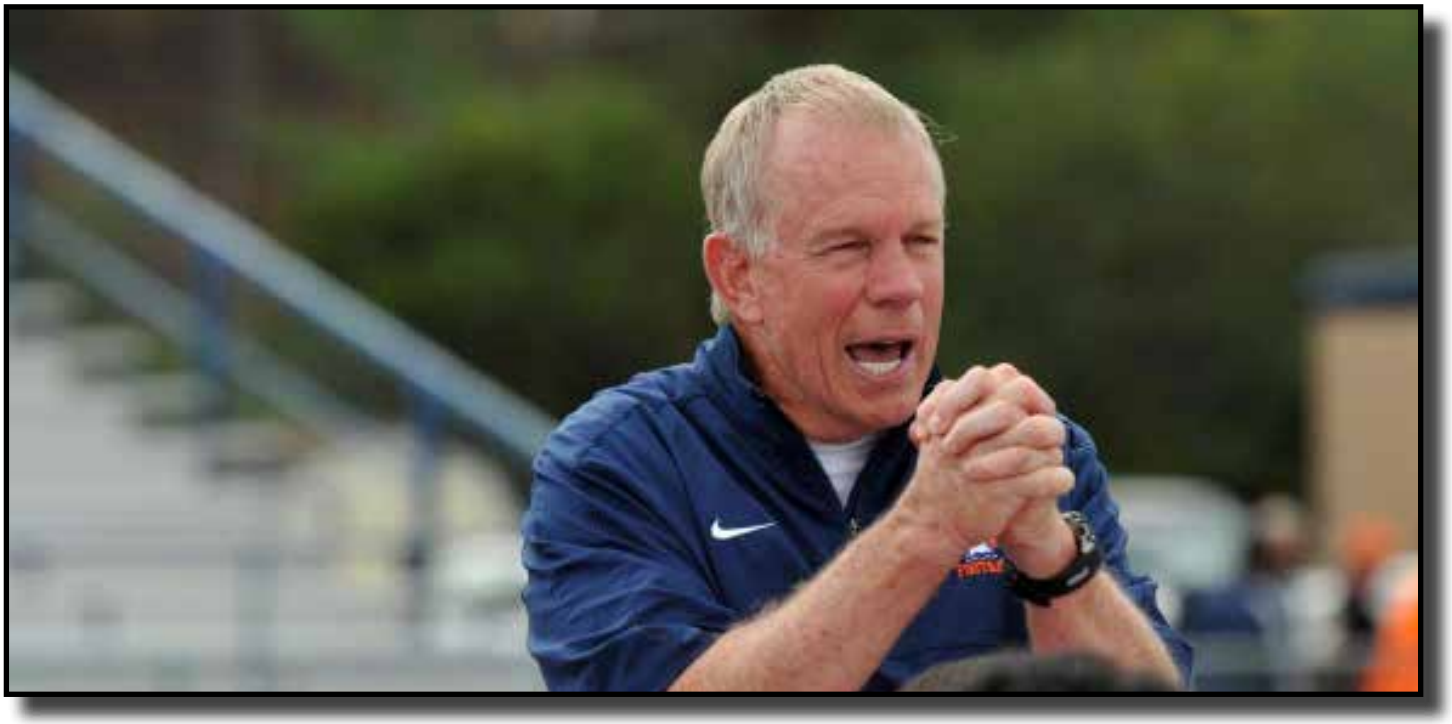

2012 went down similarly for Sparks' Eagles. After stuttering to a 2-2 start, the Eagles reeled of seven consecutive victories to earn a first round bye. C-N came out in round two and took the SAC champions, the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears, out of the playoffs with a 38-35 victory. Carson-Newman would fall just shy of the semis against eventual national champions Valdosta State.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Sparks began his coaching career at Gibbs High School in Knoxville, restarting the football program with a winning season. A year later Sparks coached quarterbacks and wide receivers at Tennessee Tech while earning his Master's Degree. He coached Morristown East High School for one season before returning to his alma mater, Carson-Newman, to serve as offensive coordinator for then-Carson-Newman head coach Dal Shealy and oversee the track program. Sparks served both teams with distinction, receiving Southern Collegiate Track Coach of the Year honors in 1977. With Sparks running the offense, the 1972 Eagles advanced to their first-ever NAIA Champion Bowl, falling to East Texas State.

Coach Sparks is a sought-after public speaker and motivator, delivering speeches a coaches clinics, church groups and civic organizations. He is a member of Manley Baptist Church of Morristown, along with his wife Carol, and is heavily involved in multiple Christian organizations.
